Organization: A 20 mx20 m field. A few boxes of 1mx1m within the field. 2 or 3 hunters (parents) Procedure: Players pretend to be different animal in the cage making different moves. (skipping, hopping) On coach's call, players must find an empty cage to move into. Only one animal in each cage. If a hunter tags a player, he/she becomes a hunter. Time: 8 Minutes	© Copyright www.academysoccercoach.co.uk 2014
Organization: Set up a jungle of cones inside of a 15mx15m field. Mark out a 5mx2m about 2 m away form the field. Procedure: The birds move through the trees. The hunter (parent) is in his/her tent (rectangle box) moving around getting ready for the hunt. As soon as hunter runs to jungle to hunt, birds can save themselves by flying on the trees (touching the cones), however, each tree can only hold on 2 birds. Hunter can tag any bird who can't find a tree. If any player is tagged,he/she becomes a hunter too. Time: 8 Minutes	© Copyright www.academysoccercoach.co.uk 2014
Organization: 15 mx15 m field. 8 players (4 children, 4 parents), soccer balls Procedure: 2 teams of player'svs parents divided in to two teams of dolphins and penguins. They all move freely in the ocean. The four shores (side of the fields, have numbers, name of city or etc). When the coach calls the number or name of the shore, kids (penguins) run the ball as fast as they can to that shore before parents (dolphins) touch Time: 8 Minutes	© Copyright www.academysoccercoach.co.uk 2014
Organization: Player's are placed inside a 30m x 30m area each with ball. Tall cones (buildings) are placed inside the area. Parents (builders) are also inside the area. Procedure: The players (bulldozers) have 10 knock all the buildings over with their soccer ball while the builders try to get them all back up. If the bulldozers can knock over all the buildings In 60 seconds they are the winners! You can change the roles of the players and dulls.	© Copyright www.academysoccercoach.co.uk 2015
